TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Brandon Coursey, who has visited with Shirley and me several times on behalf of the College Painters group.

While we are not prepared at this time to take advantage of the painting services offered by College Painters, our relationship with Brandon has been top quality.

Brandon presented the painting program to us with skill and enthusiasm. He explained that he himself would not necessarily be doing the painting, but was acting as the agent for those who would be doing so as a support for their college education. He spent a good deal of time explaining how the painters would proceed and the ultimate outcome.

Following his presentation and our reactions, he prepared a bid and delivered it to our home. While the bid was fair, it was a bit more than we are prepared to face at this time. He then left in good cheer. At no time did he pressure us for a decision. I had previously told him that we do not react well to such tactics.

I know not what Brandon's future holds for him, but if our experience is typical of his people friendliness and presentation, he has a great and promising future ahead. Shirley and I were especially impressed with his personality and professional attitude.

Please feel free to contact me if you desire further information.

Sincerely,

Jim (and Shirley) Kerr
