

Temple, TX

December 16, 2005

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Sally Hull. I am writing to inform you of the quality of work in which Chad Schneider performed and provided. I first met him in the spring of 2003. I wanted to hire him, but due to extenuating circumstances I was unable. He remained very professional and showed genuine concern for my family. In fact, with my husband deployed and son hospitalized, he offered to help beyond his business. I was very appreciative for just the offer.

With the return of my husband and a reassignment the next spring, we hired Chad Schneider. He was extremely professional and courteous. Knowing he was going to be around our kids and their things, he even made an effort to let them know who he was and what he was doing. He also planned his schedule and kept us informed accordingly. He finished the job in an extremely timely and efficient manner while being careful not to disturb the landscape. Looking over landscape, some of the areas were more of a challenge than others.

As a military family, we were truly impressed with this young man's abilities. He is a fine example of someone with a future in business. He was well organized, able to articulate in an effective and intelligent manner, and have a sense of courtesy and compassion. We would highly recommend this young man to your company.

My only regret was not giving Chad Schneider the praise and recommendation earlier. Our family left very quickly once my husband received orders. But, despite the delay in my notification, this young man needs your recognition. He has already received mine.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sally Hull